

PURE FOOD SHOW MOST ATTRACTIVE

Displays in the Kline Building on Twenty-fourth Street, in Charge of Obliging Men and Women, Are Worth Seeing—Manufacturing Institutions of Ogden Are Well Represented—Salt Lake Houses Also in Evidence—Show Open Every Night.

With all the floor space in the large Kline building on Twenty-fourth street utilized, Ogden's big pure food show was opened for the inspection of the public last evening, with every display in place. The products of Ogden and of Utah and other states are displayed attractively to the hundreds of people who visit the show and attendants are present to describe the articles and answer any questions.

Every exhibitor has vied with the others in making his display and the result is the large building has been changed into a wonderland showing the latest creations of the decorator's art.

In respect to the United Commercial Travelers, to whose efforts the success of many commercial houses is due, the colors of the lodge, white, blue and gold, have been used for decorations.

With these bright colors arranged in unique and beautiful patterns and the scores of electric lights shining everywhere, it would be hard to produce a more beautiful picture than that which is presented when the upper floor upon which the food products are displayed is reached.

Machinery occupies the entire lower floor with the exception of the rear east room, where glass show cases are for the amusement of the public.

In the west room are implements and machines of the Sidney Stevens Implement company, which are attracting the attention of farmers. A large traction plow is a feature, as well as the Ogden-made wagons. C. H. Stevens and W. W. Robins have charge of the display.

With John Fell in charge, Blackman & Griffin have a number of cream separators in the east room and demonstrations are made to all interested. Separators are also displayed by the De Laval company, in charge of D. C. Shupe.

Harley Davidson motorcycles are explained by F. W. Hotelling near the east entrance and in the corner is a booth where the Never-Burn Frying Pan company exhibits its wares.

Opposite the opening of the stairway, on the second floor, is the large display of the Shupe-Williams Candy company. Through the skillful use of the handsome boxes used by the company for its chocolates, a wonderfully attractive background is secured.

In front of this brilliant background is a large glass case in which are all varieties of the delicious chocolates manufactured by the company. The display is one to make the mouth water.

The Uncle Sam Food company has an attractive booth in which bunting and cartoons have been combined to produce a telling effect with the aid of numerous lights. The product of this company is served to those who wish to sample it. J. Lee of Salt Lake has charge.

A booth for scoring butter occupies the west corner. The scoring is done under the direction of Joseph Ririe. Fleischmann Yeast company and the Noggle Studio occupy one booth. The yeast company has also utilized a small space to good effect by constructing an electric tunnel. Noggle has for exhibition a number of large panoramic photographs of great interest as well as a number of pictures showing the different industries near Ogden. His display is in the nature of a publicity bureau.

All the products of the Jello company are attractively arranged in the booth of the Ewiggen Brothers of Salt Lake. Jello catches the eye and produces a charming effect with the aid of bunting and lights. Mrs. E. Peterson is present to answer any questions and dainty dishes of the dessert are served to those who call.

The Jensen Creamery company has used the cartons of its two brands of butter in decorating their space on the west side of the hall. Miss Norma Wilson presides at the booth.

Every product manufactured by the Superior Horseradish and Pickle company is on exhibition at one booth. Pickles prepared in a dozen different styles are shown to good advantage in fancy glass bottles with here and there bottles of horseradish to lend variety to the display. Large glass cases of potato chips are placed at each end of the setting.

In the space occupied by the Scoville Paper company are a number of rolls of paper arranged in such a manner that a harmonious effect is produced. A bright appearance is given to the stand by the use of colored balls of wire.

Products manufactured with Ogden Portland Cement company's cement are shown in the space of the Enamel Brick and Concrete company. A wall constructed of the various styles of brick manufactured by the company extends the length of the space and at the ends are sewer pipes made by the Utah Glaze Cement company.

One of the largest spaces is that devoted to Royal brand canned products manufactured by the Salt Lake Valley Canning company. A mission effect has been produced by means of a lattice work front about which has been entwined cherry blossoms and yellow chrysanthemums. To the back of the booth are the products in cans and bottles, the varicolored labels producing a sparkling effect. Mrs. Gage Rodman presides.

The various brands of roofing material handled by the Lambert Paper company are exhibited in the space occupied by the company. In addition signs are placed conspicuously calling attention to the variety of articles handled by them. Manager F. A. Rose is present.

Occupying the northeast corner is the display of food products manufactured by the Francis H. Leggett company. The use of blue and white bunting has made an attractive look of the corner and sets off to good advantage the various goods on display. A. C. Wagner has charge of the exhibit.

Ballard & Belnap have a stand upon which are placed bright red cans of lard manufactured by them.

A display made up of the products manufactured by the Utah Canning company attracts much attention on the east side of the building. The colors of the United Commercial Travelers are used to advantage and the exterior is covered with placards in colors on the same style as the labels of the cans. The entrance consists of an arch lighted by red lamps. Joseph Roberts and Mrs. L. Dempson have charge of the exhibit.

Travelers' colors have also been used by the Blackman & Griffin company to make an attractive booth in which their butter and cheese is featured. Dairy supplies, consisting of cans and separators, are placed near the front of their display.

A large pyramid of Royal Baking Powder cans greets the eye as one approaches that booth. On each side are signs calling attention to the brands of baking powder that contain alum. Bottles are also on exhibition showing cream of tartar in the different stages it undergoes before being purified sufficiently to be used in baking powder. Mrs. Jane Prout has a number of cook books which she gives to the ladies.

Milk cans covered with honeysuckle are used in the construction of the booth by the Borden Condensed Milk company. A large eagle, the trade mark, stands on top of the column of cans in the center. The product manufactured in the Logan factory is displayed. Mrs. C. E. Forbes has charge.

One of the most unique designs has been secured by the Ogden Macaroni company. Strings of the macaroni are hung in such a manner that a novel border is made and shades for the lamps are made of the same material. Packages of the various products are stacked upon stands.

The Ogden Wholesale Drug company has divided its space into two sections. On display on one side are the "Opharo" brand spices and flavoring extracts, while the "Eucula" brand toilet preparations are shown on the other side. The bright cartons used as containers for the products are arranged to make an attractive display.

The show will be open every afternoon this week at 1:50 o'clock and will not close until 10:30 o'clock.

BUSINESS TOTALS ENORMOUS SUM

Washington, Jan. 21.—Both as buyer and seller the United States during 1912 broke all its previous records, and a statement issued today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce discloses that the exports and imports together made a volume of business of more than four billions of dollars. The imports last year were valued at $1,517,662,349 as against $1,322,259,169 in 1911, while the exports in 1912 were $2,399,995,973, or about $260,000,000 more than the 1911 record.

I Must Sell the Stock

I must sell the stock. The instructions I received while in Chicago were positive. The entire stock of the Toggery must be cleared out piece by piece or in bulk. We have but a few days remaining before we are forced out of the present quarters and that means the end of the Toggery. We call on the people of this vicinity to help us get rid of this stock of clothing for men and boys. It is an opportunity that will never come again, because the values we are offering are almost beyond belief.

I guarantee that the regular retail selling price of the merchandise now on hand is $48,000.00. I offer and sell it as a whole for $19,500.00.

REBELS MET A DEFEAT

Story of Battle Sunday Below Juarez Has Been Confirmed

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21.—Confirmation was made here today of a rebel defeat Sunday at Ahumada, eighty miles below Juarez. Details of the battle were wired by way of Chihuahua City and Laredo, Tex., all communication remaining out below Juarez.

Some 600 rebels attacked Ahumada, defended by 200 federal infantry, says the Mexican consul's report. Just as the fight was at its height, the entire Twenty-third battalion arrived from the state capital. A big ship's cannon carried on the train was turned against the rebels, routing them. On the field sixty bodies were counted, including that of Antonio Rojas, a rebel general. It is declared. The federal loss was slight.

Rebel Scouts Sighted. Rebel scouts have been sighted a few miles below Juarez and all attempts to repair the Mexican Central railway were abandoned today. While Rojas was attacking Ahumada, it is believed that General Inez Salazar, with a large group of rebels, was moving north on Juarez, which is weakly defended. Reinforcements cannot arrive from the south except by a forced march and only federal infantry is available.

Col. Fuenta Again in Field. Colonel David de la Fuente, chief of artillery of Orozco's rebel army, again is in the field. It was said here today by friends. He is under bond at San Antonio, Tex., where he was held with Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., on a charge of neutrality violation.

It was said that de la Fuente entered Mexico a few days ago near Hachita, N. Mex. and had joined the rebel forces below Juarez.

DOUBLE HEADLINE BILL

AT THE ORPHEUM THIS WEEK

For the first time in many weeks two headliners will grace the bill at the local Orpheum for the coming week's bill. And from all advance newspaper criticisms they are indeed real headliners, backed by a most excellent following of acts to make up the show. Ameta, the Parisian Mirror Dancer, with a carload of scenery and electrical effects and Paul Dickie and a company of seven artists make up the two acts. Another act of consequence is that of Caesar Rivola, the man who changes his clothes quicker than a woman changes her mind, which is going some. Rivola does a protean act, plays seventeen characters all by himself, and offers $1,000 to any one who can prove that any one but himself appears in the act. (Advertisement)

LEGAL TANGLES IN POLICE COURT

Several difficulties came up in police court this morning. In the case of John Terry and Ben Waymont, both charged with disturbing the peace, and the case ended with the discharge of Waymont and the recording of a fine of $10 for Terry on the charge of offensive conduct. Both men were arrested for fighting Saturday afternoon in the Atlas saloon on Twenty-fourth street.

In the trial before Judge Reeder, the evidence failed to show that Waymont had struck a blow although the witnesses testified that Terry had struck the other man a number of times. In face of this testimony, Assistant City Attorney John Heywood asked that the case be dismissed against Waymont.

Further difficulties arose for Terry's attorney pointed out that the complaint charged the defendant with disturbing the peace by quarreling and the question, is fighting quarreling, was brought up.

To steer away from a complaint against Terry on the charge of assault, the charge against the defendant was changed to offensive conduct and Judge Reeder found the man guilty, fining him $10.

The case against John Brunetti was continued until tomorrow when Attorney William Harcomb pointed out that Brunetti was charged with assisting two prisoners to escape when the prisoners had already left the jail before Brunetti harbored them.

Brunetti is the proprietor of the Central hotel and was arrested a few days ago when it was learned that Mabel Wilson and Mrs. McGill had gone to his place after escaping from the city jail. When the police asked him for information on the night of the escape, Brunetti denied that he had seen the women.

Fertilizer for Lawns.

Why use the unsightly weed producing manure around your front entrance all winter? You can buy a pure fertilizer, free from weed seeds at $1.50 per cwt. It requires 10 lbs. to 10 square feet of lawn. Should be applied in early spring by sowing broadcast and watering immediately after application. Will produce a beautiful clean, velvet green lawn. It is far superior to manure Ogden Packing & Provision Co. (Advertisement)

HARBERTSON IS CONFIDENT OF WINNING

From all indications, the wrestling match tomorrow night between Jack Harbertson of Ogden and George McLaughlin of Malad will be the fastest contest held here in years. The outcome is a matter of doubt to the wrestling fans of the city and no odds are being placed. Both men have taken a respite from their strenuous training and declare they are in the best of condition.

McLaughlin ceased training two days ago and is keeping in condition by taking long walks and runs. Harbertson has an exhibition match tonight but says it only will give him a good workout. Harbertson declares that, if necessary, he will be able to wrestle six hours at a good pace and is confident that he will win the match. McLaughlin is also confident.

A large delegation from Malad and Logan is expected. The Malad man has a number of friends in that town who have expressed their intentions of attending the contest.

William Hemp also will have a number of his supporters from Logan on the scene to watch his efforts in the preliminary. The match between Hemp and Peyton will be to a finish and lovers of wrestling should get their fill of the popular sport.

In addition to the wrestling, five colored boxers will enter the ring at the same time to pound each other for the amusement of the crowd. Eighty ringside seats have been sold to those fans who feared a delay would result in their not being able to secure good seats. Arrangements have been made whereby over 300 persons can be seated on the stage.

SCOTCH, ATTENTION!

The Ogden Caledonian society will celebrate Burns' 154 anniversary Friday evening, January 24, with an elaborate Scottish program of Burns airs. The best local Scotch talent has been secured. If you want to enjoy a genuine Scotch entertainment, meet the Caledonians on the 24th day of January in the Rees Howell building. General admission 25c.

TELEGRAPH CO. IS NOT ALARMED

President Theo N. Vall of the American Telegraph company says of the trust investigation:

"We do not think that we have anything to fear from the attorney general's office, to be sure, his office has been investigating the telephone and telegraph situation, but the attorney general cannot think we are entirely bad for, since the investigation began, we have, with his expressed approval, put together Bell and opposition services in several large places where local authorities and the public have expressed their desire for such action. At Detroit, for instance, the opposition was merged after approval by and at the desire of all local and state authorities and the acquiescence of the attorney general and the same thing has been done in other places of almost equal importance. I believe that the public does not want two systems and we hope that will lead him to leave the question entirely with state and interstate commerce, where the matter belongs and where it is bound to go anyway. Last year the interstate commerce commission assumed jurisdiction by express authority of congress over the telephone and telegraph companies so far as interstate business is concerned. That body, together with state commission, should be able to arrange matters satisfactorily to the company and the public."

SPORT BULLETINS

BOXING BOUT HAS BEEN CALLED OFF

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 21.—The fifteen-round bout between Freddie Daniels of St. Joseph and Danny Goodman of Chicago, Friday night, has been called off upon notice from the police that boxing will not be permitted. The police order grew out of the injury to "Soldier" Smith of Fort Leavenworth, who was knocked out here last week and who is still confined in a hospital. Smith is said to be improving.

LOWELL POLICE TO BE SCHOOLED

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 21.—Lowell policemen are to be schooled in the primary knowledge of physicians and lawyers. Members of those two professions are to give the police daily lectures so that they may be able at all times to give first aid to the injured and to decide without consultation such matters as "when does a man's home constitute his castle" and when does it not?

This is the order of Mayor O'Donnell, who adds that he is going to have moving pictures taken of the police in their work-a-day duties, and of the firemen as they answer their calls. These pictures will be shown in the local theaters for the purpose of making the public familiar with the arduous work of the men in uniform and creating a popular sentiment in their favor.

Los Angeles, Jan. 21.—Little progress had been made up to noon today toward selecting a jury to try Clarence S. Darrow, the McNamara attorney, facing the second accusation of jury bribery brought against him. Five tentative jurors had been selected last night and no additions were made to this number early today.

A ruling handed down by Judge Conley was considered a point gained by the defense. The court held that no salesman holding any bias against labor unionism or against Darrow himself for his connection with labor causes might sit in the case, even though convinced of his ability to give the defendant an impartial trial.
